A quick thought for the "Acting Director" ... You will be out of a job soon.
No one survives very long in the Trump administration once he is embroiled in bad PR. Save yourself a lot of anguish and save your reputation by resigning now. If you don't, Trump will throw you under the bus after he has helped you besmirch yourself.
If you stay on, then uphold your oath to protect the Constitution and cooperate with Congress. Your allegiance is to the nation and its rule of law, not an individual. You know what that kind of allegiance got Michael Cohen.
Patriaie.

P.S. The DOJ and the White House counsel are no longer following the rule of law, so don't take advice from them.
